Colstrip Energy Limited Partnership (2022.07.073) (Lucas Hamilton)

On October 24, 2022, Colstrip Energy Limited Partnership (“CELP”) filed a motion for a term protective order regarding its responses to certain data requests submitted by NorthWestern Energy. CELP asserts its responses, which concern supply contracts, service contracts, agreements relating to CELP’s operations, maintenance and financing, and factual information relating to outage data, including analysis and workpapers, will contain trade secrets. CELP asserts that a competitor could use the information to its advantage if the information is made public.

NorthWestern Energy (2022.07.078) (Lucas Hamilton)

On October 7, 2022, NorthWestern Energy filed a motion for a term protective order regarding certain terms of its agreements with Powerex Corp, including the price term of its agreement to purchase up to 100 megawatts of power from 2023 to 2027. NorthWestern asserts that the price terms and other information in the agreement are trade secrets. NorthWestern argues that disclosure of the terms would impair its ability to negotiate terms of future power purchase agreements. NorthWestern’s motion requests a special condition prohibiting disclosure of the confidential information to market participants and competitors, including project developers.
